

JUDICIARY
THE BAHAMAS

NOTICE

The Judiciary continues in its efforts to ensure that all persons have access to our Court Schedules, Judgments, and updated information about the affairs of the Judiciary. As we continue to grow and to enhance our service delivery we are making some necessary adjustments. One such change was with the internet domain to which our website was moved a few months ago. The new domain of the Judiciary is:

courts.bs

For greater security and independence, the Judiciary's Email Server has also been changed and placed on our new domain. As a result, all of our email addresses now carry the ending courts.bs instead of the former courts.gov.bs.

While emails sent to courts.gov.bs are presently being forwarded to the corresponding new courts.bs address for now, we understand that some emails are nonetheless being returned. We apologize for this and encourage you to adjust the email address to reflect the new domain, courts.bs.

We also encourage you to continue accessing our website as we strive to keep you updated with current information and data.
